

Zhou Hongguang

Deputy Director of Investment Management Department, ZTE Corporation is responsible for the post-investment management of ZTE subsidiaries and unincorporated branches, including operation performance management, appraisal and rewards, normative operation, internal control management, and basic entity information management and provides various capabilities and risk management for ZTE entities. Mr. Zhou completed his master's degree in computer science from Central South University in 2004.