

The dividend distribution policy of the company is; to generate a fair return on investment to our shareholders within the framework of CMB regulations, taking into account the working capital requirements of the company. There are no privileges concerning dividend distribution. The procedure for dividend distribution is stipulated in Article 22 of the Articles of Association.