

Şuay Alpay

Şuay Alp was born in Elazığ in 1960. His father's name is Rüştü and his mother's name is Habibe. He was graduated from Law School at İstanbul University. He worked as an assistant specialist at Public Employer's Union in 1986. After the completion of his juridical internship, he worked as a judge at Criminal and Civil Courts in Van until 1991. He worked as a self-employed lawyer since 1992. He created and directed open session and discussion programs for local television channels. He was a member of the parliament chosen from the province of Elazığ. He served as a member of Constitutional and Justice Committee, President of Cameroon Friendship Group, Vice President of Azerbaijan Friendship Group, President of the Law Subcommittee responsible for Unlawful Eavesdropping. He served at Central Decision Board of Management in Justice and Development Party. He was Vice President of Local Administrations in the same period. He was appointed as Vice Minister of National Defense with decision.